Important Information

Your Duty of Disclosure

You must tell us everything you know (or could be reasonably expected to know) that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding:

- a) whether to accept your proposal and
- b) if so, on what terms.

Examples of what you must tell us include:

- a) anything that increases the risk of a claim
- b) any criminal offending or convictions
- c) any previous insurance claims
- d) any refusal by another insurer to insure you on standard terms, or continue to insure you on standard terms.

You have this duty every time this policy renews, or when you request any changes to it. If you fail to do this, we may avoid the policy retrospectively. You will have no insurance at all. When in doubt, disclose.

Change of circumstances

You must tell us of any material changes in your circumstances after the policy starts or during the currency of the cover and/or after any renewal.

Declaration
